NOTEWORTHY

Time to Celebrate: 50 Years of God's Faithfulness!

– Mark Beach

Welcome to the newly reformatted Impressions! We hope that you will enjoy the changes we have made because each one was made with a very specific purpose in mind: Thanksgiving!

Thanksgiving is why we changed our logo. You will notice that three significant changes have been made.

The first change is the addition of the word "Ebenezer". I Samuel 7:12 says, "Then Samuel took a stone and set it up between Mizpah and Shen, and called its name Ebenezer, saying, 'Thus far the LORD has helped us.'" For 50 years, He has guided and provided, enabling us to send millions of books about the Bible around the world!

The second change is the addition of the name, "Jehovah-Jireh". This name was first spoken by Abraham in Genesis 22. When Abraham saw the ram caught in the thicket that he could offer in place of his beloved son, Isaac, his grateful heart could not help but exclaim, "Jehovah-Jireh" literally, Jehovah will see to it, i.e., the Lord will provide. This is our assurance for the future whether the Lord be pleased to continue to use this ministry for another 50 years or 50 days or even 50 minutes. He will, indeed, "see to it" and provide all that is needed.

The third change is the addition of the number "50". This year of 2014 marks the 50th anniversary of Everyday Publications! And all of us at Everyday Publications are celebrating 50 years of God's faithfulness. Details will be coming soon in the mail regarding celebrations to be held in Canada (Ontario) in July and in the US (Florida) in October.

The Harlows

FROM OUR CHERISHED READERS

“My 12-year old daughter, Cynthia, gets up early every morning to read her devotional, The Looking Glass. She is presently going through Leviticus and says, ‘I am really appreciating what Christ's sacrifice did on the cross for all of us, so we don't have to do all these sacrifices anymore.’ She is growing so much with this book.” – Tom Wan, ON

NEW BOOKS

When you come, bring the cloak that I left with Carpus at Troas, also the books, and above all the parchments. – II Tim 4:13

21 LETTERS FOR THE 21ST CENTURY (A. E. Horton)

Though they were written nearly 2000 years ago, the New Testament epistles speak to us today with amazing relevance and can equip us for “every good work” (2 Tim. 3:16). $9.00

FACING DEATH (F. Taylor, Sr.)

David was able to face the darkest hour of his life with confidence: “Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil...” This book will help you—and the ones you love—prepare for that same valley. $5.50

ENCOURAGEMENT FOR LEADERS' WIVES (M. Gianotti & R. Spender: $9.00)

We are pleased to announce that the final volume in our Elders' Shopnotes series has been published! Encouragement for Leaders' Wives will “help meet” the needs of “helpmeets” who seek to support their elder-husbands. Paul conveys to Timothy, under the guidance of the Holy Spirit, a list of qualifications for the “noble task” of eldering. The first in the list states that an elder is to be “above reproach” (1 Tim. 3:2). Elders' wives also need to be characterized in the same way. These short essays will provide practical insights for the elders' wife to help her live up to this calling. Be sure to get the other books in this series: Biblical Foundations; Leadership Qualities; Leadership Principles; and Practical Ministry.

FEATURING...

NO TIME TO QUIT! (D. Letkeman)

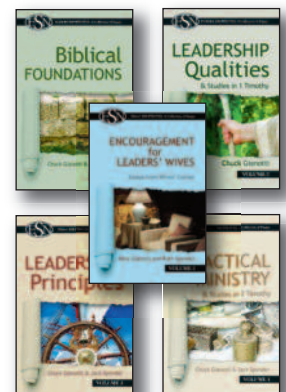

Being the first edition of the newly reformatted Impressions— published in this, our 50th anniversary year— we are compelled to feature Dr. R. E. Harlow's biography, No Time To Quit!

Compelled, not only because this book is an uplifting and edifying account of a great man of God, but because it also chronicles the background, birth, and development of Everyday Publications, providing an intimate view of who we are and why we do what we do.

I was given a copy of this book the first time I visited EPI back in 2005. As I read it, I became more and more excited about what God was doing in and through this vision He had given Dr. Harlow so many years before. By the time I had reached the end of the book, I had heard the Lord say through Dr. Harlow, “Come and starve with us!”. I certainly have not starved but I have come to see why Dr. Harlow felt, and why his widow, Gertrud, still feels that there truly is No Time To Quit! Pick up a copy and see for yourself!

“Thanks ever so much for always sending the prayer cards (P.E.D.) on time. We appreciate having them to remember to pray for your daily needs. Some of us seniors can’t do as much as we would like to but we can always PRAY! Until we hear the shout...”

— Alma Frede

“We appreciate the work that is carried on by E.P.I., and want to encourage you in this very important task of publishing ‘the Word of the Lord’. We use your Pray Every Day for Everyday pamphlet as part of our morning devotional time. May the Lord guide and bless you.”

NOW FROM DR. HARLOW

The BIG Catch

And he saith unto them, Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men. —Matt. 4:19

And Jesus said to Simon, “Do not be afraid. From now on you will catch men.” —Lk. 5:10

One of the biggest fish stories took place in early June, A.D. 33. As the sun began to set, the sky over the north end of the Sea of Galilee was probably a deep azure. Simon Peter went fishing with six others. All night the seven men worked the most likely holes. Results: nil.

When dawn broke, by simply dropping their net on the right side of the boat, they caught plenty: 153 to be exact. Not minnows, either. They were great fish. So great, in fact, that their nets began to break and their two little boats began to sink.

What made the difference? The Lord. It was when the fishermen took the Lord at His Word and moved at His command that blessing abounded. This true fish story gives us a picture of gospel blessing with God’s help. The Master promised Peter that he would become a fisher of men, drawing them in with better nets (Jn. 6:44; 12:32). You’ll recall just how true this was at the beginning of Peter’s ministry when there were about three thousand souls saved on the Day of Pentecost (Acts 2).

Let those who labor to win souls never lose sight of this divine principle: We are completely dependent on Him for catching any fish at all, whether the numbers be small or great. May we take His lead and move at His command.

COMMENTARIES ARRIVE IN CONGO!

The shipment of 3 skids (3,600 copies) of the first volume of the Congo Swahili translation of William MacDonald’s Believer’s Bible Commentary was successfully delivered just before the New Year to some very patient and very grateful saints in Bunia, DR Congo. Please pray for an effective and efficient distribution of this vital resource. Pray, also, for Gertrud Harlow as she is hard at work with the translation of Volume Two of this series.

BUSINESS NOTES

Since this fiscal year began on October 1, 2013, the EPI print shop has used over 900,000 sheets of paper and more than 40,000 sheets of cover stock to produce more than 125,000 pieces of literature sent to more than 15 countries around the world by means of 6 skids, 26 M-Bags, and numerous boxes and envelopes!

BEACH PREACH

Ice Ain't Nice... But God is Good!

When chairing a meeting on a cold and snowy night, I have often admonished those in attendance to be extra careful when walking to their cars after the meeting because “...an icy parking lot (or driveway) is like a piece of music; you will Bb (be flat) if you don't C# (see sharp)”. On January 6th, I learned that even sharp eyesight is no guarantee of firm footing. In less time than it takes to read this sentence, I fell and fractured my left ankle in three places! Ouch!

When these things happen, the inevitable question is: Why did God allow this? The answer: I don't know why, except, to show me how much He loves me, perhaps. Maybe someday I will be able to share some deeply profound and spiritual insight about that perplexing situation. But for now, I am content knowing that when I was hurt, His care for me was absolutely sufficient, undeniably unique, and overwhelmingly loving and tender!

Two weeks later, I was rushed to the hospital again, but this time with blood clots in my lungs. Once again, the Lord ministered His peace to me in a way that was absolutely sufficient, undeniably unique, and overwhelmingly loving and tender!

“The steps of a good man are ordered by the LORD, and He delights in his way. Though he fall, he shall not be utterly cast down; For the LORD upholds him with His hand.”

PRAYER & PRAISE

Introducing...

We welcome Brian and Jackie Cretney to the E.P.I. team. Brian was a school teacher for 13 years before being commended from Brockview Bible Chapel in St. Catharines, ON, where Brian also serves as an elder. He assists with typesetting and graphic design as well as communications and marketing. Brian and Jackie have four children: Rob (12), Ben (9), Ian (8) and Olivia (6). They also have a furry dog named Tasha!

“And ye shall hallow the 50th year...It is the JUBILEE... cause the trumpet of the JUBILEE to sound”
(Lev. 25)

Pray that our Canadian celebration of E.P.I.'s fiftieth anniversary (July 18) will sound forth HIS praises, from whom all blessings flow!
