March 2019

Fri. 1 “For you did not receive the spirit of bondage again to fear, but you received the Spirit of adoption by whom we cry out, ‘Abba, Father’,” Romans 8:15 NKJV.

Sat. 2 Praise the Lord for the wonderful time in February that Mark and Gail Beach had visiting their children, Jun and Thirza, and granddaughter Annaliese in Korea.

Sun. 3 From John and Claudete Axford (Echoes – Brazil): “We are delighted to inform you of the safe arrival...of the books...in good condition and did not incur customs duties. These will be used...amongst prison contacts and believers in isolated areas of Brazil. We express appreciation of this kind donation.”

Mon. 4 Join Sara Townsend in thanking the Lord for new routines and for His enabling to essentially complete “settling in” to her new apartment in February (PED (Pray Every Day) Jan. 5). Pray now for health and strength for her EPI work as well as regular trips (1 hour each way) to encourage and support her sister (PED Dec. 4).

Tues. 5 Praise the Lord for the opportunity to host a book table at a conference of Congo Swahili-speaking believers in the US over Christmas. They were especially glad to have the opportunity to purchase Bibles!

Wed. 6 Pray that missionaries in Zambia who have contact with Portuguese and Swahili-speaking people may place large orders for our books in those languages to go in the upcoming ACCTS containers.

Thurs. 7 From Brian Cretney: “On a personal note, I would appreciate prayer for wisdom and direction in both family life and ministry. ‘Not my will but Thine be done’.”

Fri. 8 Pray for Don DeBaeremaeker (former EPI volunteer) who planned to be in Belize early this month to help in the work there with missionary Sean O’Byrne. He took some EPI books along for Sean. Pray for a profitable time.

Sat. 9 From Gerrit Van Essen, MSC Canada: “All containers have arrived but the very last one which was finally sent on its way November 23rd. It should arrive sometime near the end of February or beginning of March. For some reason we had several delays with this container and the Lord knows the reasons why.” Praise the Lord for the work of MSC Canada.

Sun. 10 Praise the Lord for the purchase of 11 sets of the EPI Bible Study Series for his children by an elder in an assembly in Ontario. Pray that this would spark interest in their souls for the study of the Word of God.

Mon. 11 Pray for the Editorial Committee as they seek to implement decisions arising from their recent meeting. Pray for the Lord’s discernment and direction as they move forward.

Tues. 12 Pray for Noel Bondt as he continues to struggle with health issues but is praising the Lord for the strength given each day.

Wed. 13 “The conditions of prayer are well ordered and clear—abiding in Christ; in His name” ~ E. M. Bounds. May we pray all ‘in His name’.

March 2019

Thurs. 14 Praise the Lord for the staggering number of books being printed and sent out to New Life Prison Ministries! In a 30-day period in Jan/Feb there were 5,720 books ordered! Pray for those hungry for truth.

Fri. 15 Praise the Lord for Eunice Free who has been willing to learn Quark, a page layout program, in order to give much needed help to Harold. Her love for the Lord and His Word coupled with a keen desire for excellence equips her for this new work.

Sat. 16 Continue to pray for our volunteer, Jimmy Rollo, as he continues to struggle with health issues. We miss his faithful service.

Sun. 17 Pray for Ken and Eunice Russell, missionaries in Uruguay. They use EPI books along with local co-worker Betina Martínez in Montevideo in the Emmaus work. Pray for encouragement.

Mon. 18 Praise the Lord for the warm reception of EPI's newest title You've Got A Call by Winston Wilson. Pray for him as he travels to Jamaica for 2 – 3 months of the year to preach and encourage the believers there.

Tues. 19 Pray for opportunities to send EPI Spanish books to missionaries and commended workers in Mexico.

Wed. 20 Praise the Lord for the good working relationship with Emmaus Canada. Recently Peter Kerr had EPI print What the Bible Teaches in Chinese. Pray for blessing!

Thurs. 21 Unrest during and following the recent presidential election in DR Congo delayed the shipment of containers of Bibles, hymnbooks, and commentaries to that country. Pray for peace and stability.

Fri. 22 Pray that the containers of Congo Swahili Bibles, hymnbooks, and commentaries that are finally on their way to DR Congo may arrive safely with an uncomplicated delivery.

Sat. 23 From Barb MacDougall: “So thankful to the Lord for much relief from the dizzy/foggy head I have been experiencing! So appreciate prayer on my behalf!! The Lord is my Rock and my Salvation!”

Sun. 24 We thank the Lord for the visit we recently enjoyed with Nathanael Reed, author of God of the Trees. We also thank the Lord for the real interest Nathanael has shown in the ministry of EPI. Please pray that the Lord may bless Nathanael's many efforts in his service for the Lord.

Mon. 25 “God being Who He is must always be sought for Himself, never as a means toward something else” ~ A.W. Tozer. Pray that we would remember this.

Tues. 26 Thank the Lord for directors Steve Adams, Craig Fritchey, Bill Letkeman, Don MacMullen, Brendan McIntyre, and Terry Wilson. Pray for the Lord to guide each in their involvement with EPI.

Wed. 27 Praise the Lord for insight given to Harold MacDougall as he familiarizes himself with the process on the new laminator.

Thurs. 28 Pray that the Congolese believers who attended the conference in the US over Christmas would continue to take advantage of the resources available through EPI.

Fri. 29 Pray for wisdom and insight for Noel as he deals with unexpected problems arising from computer system updates and power outage issues.

Sat. 30 Thank the Lord for the building, equipment, stock of books, and supplies He has provided. Pray for His continued protection from anything that would hinder or harm the work at EPI.

Sun. 31 “Pain insists upon being attended to. God whispers to us in our pleasures, speaks in our consciences, but shouts in our pain. It is his megaphone to rouse a deaf world” ~ C.S. Lewis. Pray for those experiencing pain to hear the voice of the Lord. “Many are the afflictions of the righteous, but the LORD delivers him out of them all,” Psalm 34:19 NKJV.

April 2019

Mon. 1 The secret to truly living: “You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength, and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself,” Luke 10:27 NKJV.

Tues. 2 With the passing of Gertrud Harlow, the mantle of Congo Swahili translation has passed to our Congolese brethren. Pray for wisdom and diligence as they take on this responsibility.

Wed. 3 “And whatever you do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through Him,” Colossians 3:17 NKJV. Pray that this would be what guides our conduct daily!!

Thurs. 4 Continue to pray for Sara as she adjusts to her new life in Kansas. Pray that the Lord will abundantly bless above all she could ask or think!

Fri. 5 Harold reports that the equipment is running well, and he is very grateful to the Lord!! Join him in praising our Lord!!

Sat. 6 From Gail: “Pray for me ‘that I may know Him and the power of His resurrection, and may share His sufferings, becoming like Him in His death...’,” Philippians 3:10 ESV.

Sun. 7 Pray for the Lord’s leading in the work of William Loudon, missionary to Colombia, who used the EPI website to order books needed. (Encouraging to see the website being useful to those on the field!)

Mon. 8 From Brian and Jackie: “Please pray for our youngest two children (Ian and Olivia), still in elementary school. As this world grows ever darker, we pray they will shine brightly as missionaries in their schools.”

Tues. 9 The Congo Swahili Bible is now in stock at EPI. Pray that each Bible sent out would meet the needs of the soul.

Wed. 10 Pray for encouragement for each prayer partner to remain faithful in the work of intercession for EPI.

Thurs. 11 Praise the Lord for the astounding work of volunteers Tom and Hilda Parkinson. Pray that the joy of the Lord would be their strength each day that they come in to run the binder.

Fri. 12 Pray for Noel, Dwana, and the girls as they move through their daily routines. Pray for faith to grow and mature in the Lord.

Sat. 13 Pray for all of us at EPI to be the husbands, wives, parents, grandparents, and children that He would have us be.

Sun. 14 From Ruby Campbell, missionary to Colombia: “Our order arrived safely and in good conditions. Thanks very much for your investment. Blessings!” Praise the Lord for shipments arriving in a timely manner and in good condition.

Mon. 15 Pray that believers living in troubled countries like Venezuela and Nicaragua would be helped by EPI books that have been sent there in the past.

Tues. 16 Praise the Lord for help given to Noel as he continues to work on updating the EPI website. He is thankful for the progress the LORD has given.

April 2019

Wed. 17 Pray for much wisdom in how to handle new translations in languages other than English in the absence of on-site, in-house staff competent in the language.

Thurs. 18 Pray that the Lord may yet provide in-house staff with competency in other languages to coordinate the translation and preparation-for-printing process desirable for new translations.

Fri. 19 “And He [Jesus] began to teach them that the Son of Man must suffer many things, and be rejected by the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again,” Mark 8:31 NKJV. And He did all this for us!! Humbling!

Sat. 20 Pray for a time of ‘blessing for the soul’ as believers meet at the Toronto Easter Conference today. Pray that beneficial contacts will be made at the EPI book table and that the books sold would meet heart needs.

Sun. 21 “For we who live are always delivered to death for Jesus’ sake, that the life of Jesus also may be manifested in our mortal flesh,” 2 Corinthians 4:11 NKJV. Christ has risen from the dead and is alive in us!!! Hallelujah!!

Mon. 22 From Harold: “We are grateful for answers to prayer for increased orders for the Spanish-speaking world. Please pray for increased distribution to Portuguese-speaking countries.”

Tues. 23 Pray that each of us would have the mind of Christ as we do our daily tasks so that He would be honored in all things.

Wed. 24 This new year started off busy with shipments to Spain, Australia, Belize, and Dominican Republic. Pray for the safe arrival of these M-bags – it can take a few months to travel.

Thurs. 25 Pray that the Lord may prosper Sara as she typesets Spanish translations of the Elders’ ShopNotes series as well as continues reviewing Portuguese translations of our Old Testament commentaries (PED Dec. 10, Feb. 6).

Fri. 26 Pray for wisdom and discernment for Noel as he works in the warehouse, on the website, and managing the IT needs of EPI.

Sat. 27 Pray for safety in transit for the ACCTS containers on their way to Zambia and for the safe delivery of all of the books and other goods to their intended recipients.

Sun. 28 We thank the Lord for the new booklets that are soon to be printed in Gary McBride’s Doors to Freedom series. Pray that the Lord will use these to help present the Truth Who sets all prisoners free.

Mon. 29 We stand amazed at the Lord’s provision for His work at EPI! Pray for wisdom in using His provision in keeping with His mandate.

Tues. 30 Many in the assemblies in North America are praying for revival. Pray that the Lord would grant that request and that that revival would also extend to the Board, commended workers, volunteers, and ministry of Everyday Publications!
