May 2019

Wed. 1 “‘Go,’ Jesus replied, ‘your son will live.’ The man took Jesus at His word and departed,” John 4:50 NIV. Pray that we may be quick to take the Lord Jesus at His word and obey Him!

Thurs. 2 Praise the Lord for providing a Congo Swahili translation team for the Congo Swahili Believer’s Bible Commentary, a much-appreciated answer to prayer!

Fri. 3 Continue to pray for Gail Beach as she is experiencing severe headaches. At this point in time the doctors have not discovered the reason for them. Her prayer is that she would learn what it is the Lord wants her to learn, that she can continuously give thanks, and that she would walk in His joy and His strength.

Sat. 4 Join Sara Townsend in thanking the Lord for help given in preliminary work to prepare the Spanish translation of Elders’ ShopNotes, vol. 1: Biblical Foundations for typesetting (PED (Pray Every Day) April 25). Pray for wisdom in ongoing work on this.

Sun. 5 From Ruby Campbell, missionary to Colombia: “I’m focusing on taxi drivers. They need the Lord too. As a result the Lord has led some to become very active students of the Word using our... courses. This is the case of P— and others who have been blessed with the Word of God.” Pray for this outreach!

Mon. 6 Pray for the Lord’s leading for Estella and Mildred Bondt as they grow and mature. We are thankful for their joy in life, especially in this year’s piano lessons!

Tues. 7 Pray for help in the designing of a book, Election and Predestination by Peter Kerr. Keith Keyser writes: “In a refreshingly humble, straightforward manner, brother Kerr unpacks the biblical teaching concerning election and predestination...”

Wed. 8 Pray for a good response to the new EPI book table being hosted at the Ontario Workers’ & Elders’ Conference in Guelph, ON, tomorrow through Saturday.

Thurs. 9 “God’s looking for people through whom He can do the impossible; what a pity we plan only things we can do ourselves” ~ A.W. Tozer.

Fri. 10 From Harold MacDougall: “Pray for day-to-day wisdom in prioritizing projects and regular duties. Praise the Lord for all the answered prayer regarding past projects.”

Sat. 11 Pray for the Lord’s hand of protection over the current ACCTS shipments in transit to Zambia with many EPI books on board. Praise the Lord for the continuing open door into Zambia for our literature as well as for the distribution of our books from Zambia into otherwise difficult-to-reach parts of neighboring countries (PED March 6).

Sun. 12 “‘For My thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways My ways,’ declares the LORD. ‘For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are My ways higher than your ways and My thoughts than your thoughts,’” Isaiah 55:8,9 ESV.

Mon. 13 Praise the Lord that the last of the Congo containers (this one destined for Lubumbashi) was scheduled to be loaded and shipped mid-April. The other three (destined for Bunia) were to be loaded mid-April onto a ship in Norfolk, Virginia for the long ocean journey to Africa. The containers are currently estimated to arrive in June.

May 2019

Tues. 14 From Brian Cretney: "I would appreciate prayer as I develop the lessons for Agape Valley's summer camp speakers. Pray for hearts that are tender and receptive to the good news of the gospel!"

Wed. 15 Praise the Lord for a ministry in Colombia to which we have granted permission to make our Spanish courses available in a virtual version through their web site. Pray that many, many students of the Word may be benefited.

Thurs. 16 Praise the Lord for the assembly printer in Northern Ireland who has offered to print 45,000 Congo Swahili and 30,000 French Gospels of John for EPI at no charge!

Fri. 17 Praise the Lord for the work of Eunice Free in the creation of new test booklets to accompany 16 of our English books. Pray for more effectual use of these titles and possible translation into other languages.

Sat. 18 Pray for staff as they look to the Lord in preparing for time away to rest and refresh. Pray for wisdom and protection in travel.

Sun. 19 From an appreciative customer in India: "Thanks a lot for your help... Really appreciate this ministry. I am so much blessed by reading many books of R.E. Harlow. Once it reaches, I am eager to order more."

Mon. 20 We stand amazed at the stamina of Tom and Hilda Parkinson, our faithful volunteers. When asked how they do the hours of standing and working, they say that the Lord is their strength. Praise Him for answered prayer on their behalf and ours!!!

Tues. 21 Praise the Lord for help given to Noel Bondt as he continues to make progress on EPI's main website. Pray for Noel as he continues to struggle with health issues.

Wed. 22 Pray that we would all be very sensitive and very obedient to the Holy Spirit's promptings regarding future ministry direction and opportunities.

Thurs 23 Praise the Lord for a good start to a project the Lord has given us to develop a series of inductive Bible study books on each book in the Bible specifically written and designed for Third World believers whose only resource for Bible study may be the Bible itself.

Fri. 24 Pray for Brian as he works on a booklet by Jabe and Louise Nicholson: Discovering the Covering, a panoramic view of coverings throughout the Bible. This helps us understand the purpose of the head covering in this current era: It's all about God's glory!

Sat. 25 Praise the Lord for protection given over the EPI facility and contents. This is no small thing — give thanks to our God!

Sun. 26 Praise the Lord for answered prayer regarding French translators. We currently have two teams working on projects: the Monclairs and the Sutherlands. Pray for insight, wisdom, and time to get work done!

Mon. 27 There is an increasing number of assembly-commended missionaries and national workers that "know not" Everyday Publications. Pray for Divine introductions!

Tues. 28 Praise the Lord for work done by Brian on the newly-revised EPI Catalog. Available now!

Wed. 29 Continue to pray for wisdom and discernment for the EPI directors: Steve Adams, Craig Fritchey, Bill Letkeman, Brendan McIntyre, Don MacMullen, and Terry Wilson. "Trust and obey, for there's no other way..."

Thurs. 30 Pray for the worldwide work of Emmaus Correspondence School. 370 EPI books recently went out to Australia and the United Kingdom. Pray for blessing.

Fri. 31 Pray for Mark Beach as he seeks to translate five of O. J. Gibson's books into Everyday English. Pray for time and energy in this project.

June 2019

Sat. 1 “‘Unless you people see signs and wonders,’ Jesus told him, ‘you will never believe,’” John 4:48 NIV. “Then Jesus told him, ‘Because you have seen Me, you have believed; blessed are those who have not seen and yet have believed,’” John 20:29 NIV. Praise the Lord there is a blessing for us who have not seen yet believe, giving joy to our Lord Jesus!

Sun. 2 From Marilyn Poidevin, missionary in Zambia: “We are part of an active assembly in Lusaka with 300 plus in fellowship. I have joined the ladies Bible study which meets once a month.” She wrote to order EPI books for the ladies. Pray for this work.

Mon. 3 Pray for the Congo Swahili translation team working on the translations of the BES Bible-time curriculum as well as volume 3 of the Believer’s Bible Commentary.

Tues. 4 From Harold: “Praise the Lord for the team spirit in helping and supporting each other in our work. Pray that it will continue.”

Wed. 5 Praise the Lord for the three books by Paul Bramsen that EPI has been approved to print and distribute, some in French and Spanish as well as English. Pray for the Lord to open doors of usefulness for these messengers.

Thurs. 6 Give thanks and pray for perseverance for each believer who prays for the Lord to work in and through EPI.

Fri. 7 Pray for health, strength, and stamina for Sara for her various work, assembly, and routines of life activities during the normally hot, humid Kansas summer.

Sat. 8 Pray for safe delivery as books travel to Emmaus in the United Kingdom and Australia and also for shipments for Colombia, India, Peru, Dominican Republic, and Spain.

Sun. 9 A new EPI book, A Wise Woman Builds, is now available! The daughters of the late Phyllis Dibble collected some of the material she had used in her 50+ years of ministry in Nigeria and put it into book form. Pray that God would use this book in a mighty way for His glory!

Mon. 10 Pray for Noel and Dwana as they raise their girls in these difficult days. Pray for the Lord’s wisdom, energy, and faithfulness in the daily routines of life.

Tues. 11 Thank the Lord for Portuguese translator Margarida Cerqueira. Pray that the Lord may prosper her in her current project, Proverbs: The King’s Wisdom.

Wed. 12 From Brian: “Please pray for our family as we transition into the next ‘chapter’ of life: Our oldest attending university in the fall, with two in high school and one soon to follow! Pray for their preservation, spiritual growth and fruitfulness for the Lord.”

Thurs. 13 From Gail: “Pray for those of us who are grandparents: that we would lift our children and grandchildren to the LORD, trusting Him to lead and guide. Pray too for the salvation of each of our grandchildren.”

Fri. 14 Praise the Lord that the four containers of Congo Swahili Bibles, hymnbooks, and MacDonald commentaries are now at sea, Lord willing! Pray for an uneventful journey and a safe and uncomplicated arrival.

Sat. 15 Praise the Lord for His faithfulness in providing what is needed for doing His work at EPI!! “He who calls you is faithful, who also will do it,” 1 Thess. 5:24 NKJV.

June 2019

Sun. 16 “Jesus said to him, ‘Have I been with you so long, and yet you have not known Me, Philip? He who has seen Me has seen the Father’,” John 14:9 NKJV. “Jesus said to him, ‘Thomas, because you have seen Me, you have believed. Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have believed’,” John 20:29 NKJV. Our Father is pleased when we believe with all our hearts! Do you believe?

Mon. 17 Pray for the Lord’s blessing on a booklet written by Gary McBride entitled The Promises of God. Pray that it may be an uplifting resource that will bless all who read it!

Tues. 18 Many much-appreciated volunteers have played a vital role in the work of EPI down through the years. There is room for others to give a helping hand at the present time. Pray that the Lord may bring some of His choice helpers to us, for their joy and ours — and His!

Wed. 19 Pray for Marilyn MacMullen as she works on various EPI projects along with other varied responsibilities.

Thurs. 20 EPI has been in the present facility in Port Colborne for the past 17 years. There is an increasing need for more space. Pray for the Lord’s wisdom and direction in expanding or relocating.

Fri. 21 Pray for the Lord’s enablement and help for the Inductive Bible Study Project. “Unless the LORD builds the house, they labor in vain who build it,” Psalm 127:1a NKJV.

Sat. 22 Pray that each staff family may be able to have a refreshing time away from the demands of ordinary life and work during the summer. Pray that the minimal needs of keeping the office running may be covered without undue stress.

Sun. 23 From a brother sending books to Spain: “Thank you very much...we trust that this doctrinally sound Christian literature will be a blessing for those who read it and for the Lord’s glory and honor. Thanks for your service to the Lord and His people.”

Mon. 24 From Noel: “We are excited to be shipping pallets of books to Zambia, along with 900 DR Congo Swahili Bibles via MSC ACCTS container.” Pray for much blessing!

Tues. 25 We marvel at the high-end equipment the Lord has provided for the work at EPI. Praise Him for this and for keeping it all operating so well!

Wed. 26 From Brian: “Pray for a new project EPI is undertaking: Preparing a gospel-based curriculum that will be taught to potentially 40,000 students across the U.S. This resource will also be available to the other countries that EPI sends resources to...so please pray for help and blessing.”

Thurs. 27 Praise the Lord for EPI’s “Northern Light”, Eunice Free! She has been an answer to prayer in getting formatting done and stalled projects up and running.

Fri. 28 From Harold: “Praise the Lord for opportunities we have to help Gospel Folio Press next door with various projects. Pray for our good neighbors as we work together to bring good literature to the hungry.”

Sat. 29 Praise the Lord for orders coming in via the website; a recent one from Peru has been sent on its way! Pray for widespread blessing!

Sun. 30 Praise our great God for the work of New Life Prison Ministries. In a recent 7-week period, 3,246 books were ordered, prepared, and sent out. Pray for a great harvest. “Behold, I say to you, lift up your eyes and look at the fields, for they are already white for harvest!” John 4:35 NKJV.
