July 2010

Thurs. 1 "He who calls you is faithful, who also will do it. Brethren, pray for us"
1 Thess. 5:24-25 NKJV. Praise the Lord for Gertrud Harlow's faithful years of service to the Lord. Pray for "wisdom in coping with the discomfort of the fingers."

Fri. 2 Thank the Lord for Sara Townsend who has faithfully and diligently labored for 22 years as the editor of PED. Pray for increased productivity now in her other areas of responsibility.

Sat. 3 Praise the Lord for a good time at the Semi-Annual Meeting in May (PED (Pray Every Day) May 8). Mark Beach notes that "it was a productive and profitable time with good unity."

Sun. 4 From Dorothy Grieve (South Africa-UK): "Our order arrived safely a few days ago and we do thank you very much for your helpfulness." They are using the books in book stalls at a camp for Zulu men and a conference in Durban for people from Indian assemblies. She continues, "They are always most appreciative of being able to get literature at such very reasonable prices."

Mon. 5 Praise the Lord for the Editorial Committee meeting in May as "everything on the agenda was accomplished and positive action plans put in place" (PED May 7).

Tues. 6 From Harold MacDougall: "Praise the Lord for the new 'copy press' which arrived April 30th. It is running beautifully and is living up to all expectations" (PED March 24).

Wed. 7 Pray for Caleb Beach as he works as a counselor at Agape Valley Bible Camp. Pray for strength and help as he deals with the children under his care in July and August.

Thurs. 8 Pray that our missionaries in Zambia will have their book orders for the October ACCTS container to us in good time, enabling the printing to be done and the books bound and made ready for shipping.

Fri. 9 Harold, Barb, and Iain MacDougall plan to travel "down east" for about 2 weeks in early July. Pray for safety and for a time of blessing with family, friends, and commending assembly.

Sat. 10 Praise the Lord for providing for His work at EPI in the form of two large legacies which helped make it possible to put in place the new 'copy press' (PED March 24).

Sun. 11 Praise the Lord for His excellent care of the equipment, building, and stock of books. How we appreciate the ability to work "distraction free" each day. Continue to pray as this comes to mind.

Mon. 12 Pray for Dr. Katho in NE Congo who has represented the assemblies in that region. Pray for good health and for his many responsibilities in book distribution.

Tues. 13 Pray for the Lord's leading in decisions regarding a missions trip to Belize for Thirza and Caleb Beach and Jen and Iain MacDougall. The trip is scheduled for August 7-21 with the Portal Village Bible Chapel youth group.

July 2010

Wed. 14 Thank the Lord for giving help to Barb MacDougall as she takes on the responsibility of preparing PED. Pray that she will be led of the Lord.

Thurs. 15 Pray for EPI volunteer John Storm who is having surgery today. Pray that all would go well and that the Lord will raise him back up to health and strength.

Fri. 16 Pray for wisdom for Sara in the many small decisions needing to be made as she reviews Spanish and Portuguese translations and test booklets as part of the preparation-for-printing process.

Sat. 17 Praise the Lord with Mark and Gail Beach in the wonderful answer to prayer for “the beautiful wedding of Joshua and Alyssa that was honoring to the Lord” (PED May 15). Pray that Joshua and Alyssa would establish their home on Christ Himself and set the direction for their new life together.

Sun. 18 Thank the Lord for Mark, Gail, Thirza, and Caleb’s safe arrival back in Port Colborne after travelling over 4700 miles (PED May 13). They report that their time was well spent with family, friends, and their commending assembly in Colorado.

Mon. 19 Thank the Lord for directors Steve Adams, Bill Allison, Ron Gee, Hanniel Ghezzi, Gertrud Harlow, Bill Letkeman, and Don MacMullen. Pray that the Lord will bless and encourage them in their personal walk with the Lord.

Tues. 20 Pray for those who are writing new titles – Bill Yuille, Peter Kerr, and Carlos Morris (Spanish). Pray that the Lord would empower them with His message for the people.

Wed. 21 Praise the Lord that Noel and Dwana Bondt were able to purchase central air-conditioning for their home. The cooler air will allow Noel to sleep better at night which is a real help with his heart condition.

Thurs. 22 Pray for abiding fruit from the 3465 books that were sent via ACCTS container in April to Sakeji Mission School to be distributed as part of the ministry there.

Fri. 23 Pray today for renewed strength and energy for staff during the humid days of summer. Pray for the Lord’s protection and care for staff and volunteers who have health concerns affected by high heat and increased humidity.

Sat. 24 Pray for clear direction for Iain MacDougall as he looks to the Lord for his future this September. Pray that the Lord will “direct his path”.

Sun. 25 Thank the Lord that the new renovations are proving to be very beneficial to the everyday running of the work at EPI (PED Jan. 13).

Mon. 26 Remember Alma Turnbull this week as she helps with the Markham Bible Chapel Day Camp, July 26-30. She asks, “I would appreciate prayer that I can keep pace with the demands each day.”

Tues. 27 Pray for Grace Spence as she works diligently in the hothouse of a warehouse! Also remember her as she cares for her parents and prays for her children and grandchildren.

Wed. 28 Pray for wisdom in knowing how to respond to letters received from India, Africa, and elsewhere from individuals requesting free books. Pray that the Lord would give discernment in knowing which of these requests are genuine.

Thurs. 29 Thank the Lord that EPI can share in the work of other ministries – Agape Valley Bible Camp, Gospel Folio Press, New Life Prison Ministries, and a local ladies’ outreach. “Treasure in heaven” as Harold says!

Fri. 30 Thank the Lord with Gertrud that “Mert and Jane Wolcott have expressed willingness to check over Gertrud’s translation into Swahili of Wm. MacDonald’s Believers Bible Commentary (NT) as the translation progresses with the Lord’s enabling.”

Sat. 31 Pray that the Lord may prosper Cidinha Moss as she begins a new Portuguese translation of Can We Know God?

August 2010

Sun. 1 “Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God; and the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus,” Phil. 4:6-7 NKJV. We praise the Lord for the amount of prayer that goes up to heaven on behalf of EPI. We feel the need to have our hearts and minds guarded by the peace of God.

Mon. 2 Pray for strength and wisdom as Noel continues programming the EPI website and internal software applications for EPI’s printing ministry needs.

Tues. 3 Praise the Lord that the cost of printing has decreased considerably with the new printing equipment. It costs up to 44% less to print a 150-page perfect bound book. The new printer can also print for up to 3 hours unattended, freeing up valuable time.

Wed. 4 Pray that Gertrud might soon have her “green card”, i.e US permanent residence visa, in her hand (PED May 3). The processing of the application has been completed but the card has not yet been delivered.

Thurs. 5 Continue to pray for the Beach’s application for permanent resident status in Canada, that the Lord would resolve this as it affects Thirza’s direction for her future (PED May 28).

Fri. 6 Thank the Lord for the many books that go out the door to New Life Prison Ministries. Pray that each book will be used of the Lord in helping to change lives.

Sat. 7 Pray for Rachel VandenBerg (nee Brooks, who has married and moved to PEI) as she continues to design covers for some EPI books. Pray for wisdom and creativity.

Sun. 8 Praise the Lord with us for all our faithful prayer warriors that remember the concerns of EPI before our Father in heaven. It is a great encouragement to us and we thank the Lord for you all.

Mon. 9 Thank the Lord for the excellent work of Eunice Free in proofreading our French titles. Pray for continued help in this exacting work.

Tues. 10 Praise the Lord for the wonderful work of our English proofreaders – Sara Townsend, Marilyn MacMullen, Gloria MacDougall, and Eunice Free. Pray that they will adapt quickly to the new “Style Sheet” to be introduced in the near future.

Wed. 11 Thank the Lord for the 3798 books sent to Africa in the month of May. Pray that each book will bless and encourage and make a difference for eternity.

Thurs. 12 Pray for wisdom and patience for Sara as she finalizes Spanish and Portuguese projects and turns them in for printing. Pray that she may not “cut corners” when the end is in sight but may persevere in giving careful attention to detail.

Fri. 13 Praise the Lord for a profitable time for the staff at the Ontario Workers and Elders Conference in May. It was both challenging and encouraging. Praise the Lord also for giving help to Barb MacDougall for the Ladies Seminar (PED May 5).

Sat. 14 Pray that the Lord will keep the United States border open for EPI books to be sent through the United States Postal Service. This helps keep the cost of shipping down.

August 2010

Sun. 15 Praise the Lord for the excellent interest and book sales at the Ontario Workers and Elders Conference in May (PED May 4).

Mon. 16 From Mark: “Pray for Gods wisdom and provision for a second printing of the Congo Swahili Bible and for the next printing of the Congo Swahili hymnbook” (PED March 18).

Tues. 17 Thank the Lord that all on-site workers have been kept free of injury as there are many potential dangers with cutters, binding machines, and much lifting and pulling. Pray for continued safety.

Wed. 18 Pray that God would continue to “enlarge our coasts” and bring us into contact with previously unknown customers and opportunities.

Thurs. 19 Praise the Lord that Food for New Believers continues to be our “best seller” in both English and Spanish. Pray that the Lord would continue to make it fruitful in lives around the world.

Fri. 20 Pray for books in transit and in particular for 5000 plus Swahili and French books and Bibles destined for Lubumbashi in the DR Congo.

Sat. 21 Praise the Lord for our efficient website and how it makes EPI more accessible and user friendly.

Sun. 22 From Ken and Eunice Russell (Uruguay): “Great to be in touch! When we write, it means we are running low or have already run out of some important literature. Sure enough, a brother came along and took all of my Y Dijo Dios and needs more! Thank you very much for your ministry and generous supply of great literature.”

Mon. 23 Praise the Lord for answered prayer regarding French books to Africa (PED May 22). We received an order in May for 3765 books from some Swiss brethren wanting to send books to Congo!

Tues. 24 Pray for our Congolese brethren as they assess their future need for EPI books. Pray for discernment to know what would be the most useful to their people

Wed. 25 Join Noel and Dwana in thanking the Lord for how healthy and happy Estella is at 8 months old! Pray for His continued rich blessing for this young family.

Thurs. 26 Pray that the title Facts of the Christian Faith that is being revitalized will soon be “back in print” and will be useful in people’s lives.

Fri. 27 Alma reports that she had to have laser surgery at the end of May to correct a problem with one eye. The procedure was fast and successful and we can praise the Lord for this.

Sat. 28 Pray for a short-term missions team that has taken 1000 copies of the “Gospel of John” in Swahili to Lubumbashi, DR Congo. Pray for wise distribution among the needy Christians.

Sun. 29 Praise the Lord for our faithful and hardworking volunteers: Arthur and Mary Jane Robinson, Desmond and Gayle McCurry, John Storm, Jimmy Rollo, Tom and Hilda Parkinson, Don DeBaeremaeker, and Thirza Beach. Pray that our Lord may richly bless them for this vital service!

Mon. 30 Thank the Lord for the translation into Norwegian of Randy Amos’ The Church: A Discipleship Manual (PED March 25). The translator hoped to get it printed in the fall. Pray that all may go smoothly and for much blessing as it is distributed.

Tues. 31 Praise the Lord that the above title is now translated into Chinese and Russian (in progress) as well as Norwegian. Pray that other useful EPI titles may be translated into languages we ourselves do not publish, for a wider distribution.
